and the usual congratulations those Certificates to teach were granted at the examination held June 18th to the following persons: P. W. Hannahs, five years; Hattie Dee, Vesta M. Story, R. H. Roberts and Della M. Power, three years; Geo. E. Blake, two years; Lissa Ellenwood, Emma Armstrong, Lizzie Boeshart, Dora Briggs, Lizzie Dippel, Lottie Henry, Myrtle Henry, Sarah E. Newton, Sarah Plumley, Daisy A. Powers, Alice Prewett, Sophia Schwenderman, Hattie Nitt, Wm. K.

Breckenridge, Benj. F. Feldner, J. W.
Forshey and Pearl Palmer, one year.

Between nine and ten o'clock Tuesday night the police were called to the home of Frank Radenbach, who lives upstairs over Graf & Weber's tailor shop on Front street. Officer Well-brooke, who was the first to arrive, found a number of men fighting and arrested George Alford, of the well-known oil firm of Baer & Alford. Two other men who, it developed afterward, were chums of Alford, and whose names could not be ascertained, escaped, one of them by jumping out the second story window. Alford, who was very much intoxicated, was locked up. According to Mr. Radenbach's story, Alford and the two men, all of whom were drunk, came up the stairway into his rooms in a noisy manner and using vile language. He met them at the head of the stairs with the statement that they "were in the wrong place," supposing they were looking for a house of ill repute the entrance to the stairway of which is near by.
He was assaulted by Alford and his friends and somewhat bruised. His wife, who, unfortunately, is about to become a mother, ran out when she heard the scuffle and was knocked down by Alford or one of his associates. Two or three outsiders who heard the racket also ran up the stairs and the scrimmage became general until Wellbrook arrived. It is not known what charge will be placed against Alford, but it will be a grave one, as the assault upon Mrs. Radenbach was brutal in the extreme. Owing to her condition it may result in serious consequences.

Council Proceedings.

Council met in regular session Tuesday evening with 11 members present, Vice President Rech in the chair.

The Park Commissioners reported an expenditure of $313.90 for the erection of the new band stand in Muskingum Park, bills for $275.46 of which amount have been presented, leaving estimated bills outstanding to the amount of $38.50. A. D. Follett explained that the additional cost was due to necessary change of plans and asked a further appropriation of $100. The report of the Commissioners was accepted and placed on file, but an amendment to appropriate the additional $100 asked being defeated, Garrison, Price, Henry, Ridge and Wood voting no.

The Engineer reported the final estimate on H. T. Day's Greene street paving contract, to the amount of $4,494.94, which estimate was allowed.
A bill for $237.02 for extras was presented by Mr. Day and upon motion of McClure $185 of the amount was allowed. The payment of the balance of $22.02, for round curbing, was referred for investigation.

Mr. Day's bond in the sum of $2500, to keep the work done by him in good repair for five years, was submitted, with A. O. Jones and J. C. Hardy as sureties, and accepted.

Solicitor Richards submitted a draft of the Third street contract to be entered into with Captain W. J. Berry, fixing the amount of the contractor's bond at $15,000, the cost of the improvement being estimated at $30,000. The time for completion of the work was fixed at four months, to be done at the price bid, 65 cents per yard for paving and 38 cents per lineal foot for curbing.
Provision is made that no pavement shall be laid until sewers already ordered are completed throughout said street. Upon motion the bond and a copy of the contract were ordered to be forwarded to Mr. Berry for acceptance.

Building permits were granted to C.
S. Shepard, Knox Addition, and Geo.
Preston, Gilman street.

The Landing committee reported the Front street wharf in bad condition and that Captain Davis refused to pay wharfage to double the amount paid by Capt. Duffy, whose rental was reduced while work on the ice harbor lock was in progress. The matter of rent was referred to the Solicitor for report.

The plat of Sunderland's Addition, West Side, was referred to the Solicitor and Street committee for report at the next meeting.

Bills allowed; Council adjourned.

That Girl.
Somewhere upon this continent there dwells a maiden rare, A girl quite different from the rest (I hope) that she is fair, And as I know it has not been my lot to meet her yet, They say that there awaits for me some girl I've never met.
Somewhere for me her heart beats warm, There's witchery in her eye, For me, they say, the chosen girl casts many suitors by,
For me her life is pure and true because she holds a debt Of love and long devotion from the man she has not met.
If this be true, this girl of mine, unknown though pure and true, And knowing has the purest love that hath ever known,
And if for me she sometimes longs with unrequited tears,
Some day she'll know, when we have met, She's had my love for years.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.

Mr. A. E. Wing, a keeper at the Michigan State Prison at Jackson, Tells About It.
From Jackson Citizen.

Mr. A. E. Wing is a keeper at the Michigan State prison, Jackson, a position he has held for years. Our representative found him at his residence, No. 612 North Jackson street, and he related the following incident, the truth of which is beyond dispute, for Mr. Wing's sterling qualities are well known to his many acquaintances, a good man and a faithful officer, he would not misrepresent anything that would wrongly impress our citizens.
He says: "Some months ago my attention was attracted by a swelling in my groins; the swelling began to increase to such an extent that I was alarmed.
It spread down my legs right into my feet, so bad that I could not get my pants or shoes on. I had to open my shoes a distance of fully two inches.
My condition was very bad; my face even puffed up and my whole system even seemed affected; I could scarcely walk up stairs to unlock my men. I went to a physician, one of the ablest in the city. He said the swelling was caused by my kidneys, and I commenced treatment with him, but my condition did not change and I seemed to be getting worse. About this time a friend strongly urged me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I finally consented to let him get a box for me.
After the first week of their use I commenced to notice a change, and I continued taking them, five boxes in all, with the happy result that I was completely cured. I must confess that I was surprised at the result. I have never heard of any medicine which seemed to have such a radical effect and yet leave the system in such a good condition. I feel better now than I ever did. After the effect was once established the swelling gradually disappeared until entirely gone. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills simply wonderful as an agent in curing any form of kidney disorder."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents. Mailed by
